THE ROWDY REICHSRATH

Austria in Danger of Revolution.

The Ministry May Be Impeached.

Evening Newspapers Confiscated and News Vendors Arrested
—Serious Riot at Gratz.

VIENNA, November 26.—The names of the suspended members of the Reichsrath were Herr Schoenauer, Seiner, Rieger, Rezel, M. Kosakowicz, Schramm, Weller, Linge, Vertessy, Hybos and Benes.

The scenes throughout the sitting and afterwards were as disorderly as those of the earlier parts of the day and the house finally adjourned until tomorrow.

Large crowds gathered this evening about the University building and the grounds owing to the announcement that the students would make a demonstration. This, however, was prevented by the police who promptly dispersed the gathering. More than 40 arrests were made. There was no violent resistance. Thus far order has been preserved.

After 9 o'clock this evening the aspect of the streets became more threatening. It is estimated that a crowd of 10,000, including a very large number of students, assembled and threatened the government with revolution and Count Baden, the premier, with the Guillotine. An attempt was made to attack Count Baden's house.

The police repeatedly charged the crowd, but refrained from using arms. The students resisted with sticks. The police inspector was severely injured by a kick from a horse; another was thrown from his horse and so badly hurt that it was necessary to remove him to a hospital. A few citizens and some officers received slight injuries. Not until 11 o'clock was quiet restored.

Today's editions of most of the evening newspapers have been confiscated, and the police have freely arrested persons offering papers for sale in the streets.

A serious riot is reported at Gratz, the capital city of Styria. It appears that the students and a large body of workmen attacked three newspaper offices, doing some damage. The police, with the assistance of the troops, have restored order and twenty arrests have been made of the ring leaders.

The cool attitude maintained by Herr Abramovic, the president of the chamber, greatly enraged his opponents.

Mr. Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain) was among those expelled from the gallery of the Unterhause today.

Today's proceedings, however, exasperated Herr Abramovic both physically and mentally, and he was obliged to abandon the struggle when it was at its height. Dr. Krammer, the vice president, a young man considerably the junior of Herr Abramovic, followed him, but he succeeded better in his attempts to dominate the disorders. The opposition leaders held another meeting this evening and decided, it is said, to impeach the ministry.

Workers took but little part in the street demonstrations. They intend to organize demonstrations on their own account, which will probably be more serious in their results.

A LONG TUNNEL.

The Valley Road Begins Work of Construction in Contra Costa.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 26.—The directors of the San Joaquin Valley railroad have ordered work commenced on the tunnel in Contra Costa county for the road that is to run from Stockton west to Point Richmond.

The tunnel is to be one mile in length and will cost about $500,000. The work will be prosecuted night and day, and the directors believe that the tunnel can be bored in 600 days.

By that time it is expected to have all the other work between Point Richmond and Stockton completed, as well as ferry service to this city.

A steel viaduct a quarter of a mile long is to be constructed across the Alhambra valley in Contra Costa county.

The Iowa Seaworthy.

WASHINGTON, November 26.—The naval trial board has made a report upon the recent two day's trial of the big battleship Iowa at sea that thoroughly sustains Commodore Dewey's comment that the ship was as fine a type of ship in her class as there is in the world. The board says in part:

"The vessel under all circumstances behaves well, being very steady and rolling and pitching but a few degrees. Her freeboard forward adds greatly not only to the comfort of the men, but to her seagoing efficiency and the power of the firing of her guns under all circumstances. Altogether her seagoing qualities appear to be excellent. The speed was 13.45 knots, but this was under natural draught and with a poor quality of coal. The machinery worked well in every particular."

Lynched by a Mob.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., November 26.—Licks Price, a negro charged with rape, was taken from the jail at Starks tonight by a mob of 100 men. He was hanged to a limb of a tree and about fifty shots were fired into his body. The mob gained entrance to the jail by pretending to have another suspect to imprison and then overpowered the jailor.

THE LAW'S DELAYS.

Durrant's Counsel Inventing Further Petitions and Appeals.
SAN FRANCISCO, November 26.—The attorneys for Theodore Durrant today filed another document with the clerk of the supreme court. This time it was a petition for a writ of mandate to compel Judge Bahre to set a date for the trial of Durrant for the murder of Miami Williams.

It had been understood that Acting Attorney General Carter would today file with the supreme court a motion to vacate the order of probable cause. After consultation with the chief justice it was announced that such a move could not be followed and it is probable that other action defining the next move of the prosecution will soon be taken.

Acting Attorney General Carter has received word from his chief to the effect that he will advise Warden Hale of San Quentin to carry out the execution of Durrant irrespective of any legal proceeding that may be instituted by the prisoner's attorneys, after the present legal quibble shall have been decided.

Durrant will be sentenced as soon as the controversy now pending is settled, after which the attorney general of the state believes that no legal step can accomplish further delay in the postponement of the tardy execution of the Emmanuel church murderer.

REFRACTORY PRISONERS.

Nineteen of Them Attempt to Kill an Indiana Sheriff.

PRINCETON, Ind., November 26.—Nineteen prison inmates confined in the Gibson county jail declared themselves in open revolt against Sheriff Murphy today.

For several days ugly threats have been made by the prisoners and the sheriff has been warned. This morning the men declared they would have more fire and kill the sheriff.

A posse of deputies was placed outside the jail while Sheriff Murphy entered alone. As soon as he closed the door all the prisoners headed by John Boger, a notorious criminal, rushed upon him and were about to carry out their threats, when the posse rescued the sheriff.

A fierce fight occurred between Boger and a deputy and Boger was beaten almost into insensibility and then thrown into a cell. Boger says he will kill Murphy.

TO SAIL TODAY.

The Bear Ready for Her Rescue Trip.

Captain Tuttle Feels Sanguine of the Rescue of the Whalers.

SEATTLE, November 26.—Preparations for the departure of the revenue cutter Bear are about completed and if no unforeseen delay occurs she will weigh anchor tomorrow afternoon and start on her mission of mercy to the Arctic ocean to relieve the imprisoned whaling fleet.

A short stop will be made at Port Townsend, after which the Bear will proceed without further delay, going as far into the icy northern waters as steam and wind will drive her.

Speaking today of the success of his trip, Captain Tuttle said: "I may not be able to reach Leige Island, where it is intended to land the overland expedition, but there is another place where I think I can land. I will not say where it is, for the reason that I might fall."

Captain Tuttle is more hopeful of the success of the expedition than when it was first suggested, and he is very anxious to get it started.

CHANGE OF PROGRAM.

A Lively Scene on the Stage of a Chicago Theater.

CHICAGO, November 26.—The audience at the Great Northern theater tonight narrowly missed being entertained by a riot of stage hands, actors and actresses, instead of the "Bohemian Girl," which was the opera billed for the performance. The trouble was caused by a strike of stage hands and electricians.

After a delay of half an hour the curtain rose with all the members of the Boston Lyric Stock Company in opera costume, grouped about the stage surrounding their manager, W. A. Thompson, who appeared with coat, hat and stick. The striking employee gathered about the theater door, apparently ready for trouble.

Mr. Thompson, in a bitter speech, denounced Manager David Henderson of the Great Northern Theater, declaring he had treated the company "most shamefully" and announced that the play could not go on. He called for the strikers to come upon the stage, but they yelled back that the police had been called in to arrest them if they made such a move.

The audience began to rush for the doors, fearing serious trouble, but the opera company quieted fears by singing "Auld Lang Syne" and giving three times three for Manager Thompson.

Mr. Henderson, in an interview after the occurrence, declared that the difficulties resulted from his cancellation of the stock company's engagement. He charged the company with incompetency and asserted that Mr. Thompson had secured the engagement by false representation. He said that the strike was the result of an attempt of Mr. Thompson to stir up trouble in an effort to secure control of the theater. Mr. Thompson's statements were emphatically denied by the opera people, who declared that financial difficulty on the part of the theater management was at the bottom of the trouble.

Drowned While Skating.

DURANT, Miss., November 26.—Miss Louise LaSalle and Miss Jennie Sherrill, girls each about 17 years of age, were drowned in the St. Louis river tonight while skating.

MYSTERY OF A STILETTO

Cuts a Figure in the Thorn Case.

Thorn Had Fired at Gulden-suppe.

A Barber Testifies to an Alleged Confession by the Murderer.

New York, November 26.—The trial of Martin Thorn, charged with the murder of William Goldensuppe, was resumed at Long Island City today. The first witness was the baker, Keene, whose examination had not been concluded when court adjourned last Wednesday evening. In reply to Mr. Howe's question this witness admitted that the stiletto which he had shown to Thorn had a poisoned point, and he seemed to be very uncomfortable after having made this admission. That he said he only kept it as an ornament, afterwards explaining that his brother had made him a present of it.

Edward Speck, a bartender, testified to seeing Thorn in the saloon in East 28th street on June 29th. Thorn was showing a watch to a driver named Federer. Thorn had also exhibited some money and said: "This is what I got out of my carriage ride last Saturday afternoon."

Carl Marich, who keeps a barbershop, testified that Thorn told him about spending the evening with Mrs. Nack and having had a row with a boarder (Goldensuppe) at whom he fired a pistol, but did not intend to hurt him. This row occurred in March or April last.

This witness said that he had sent Thorn for a bottle of "shampoo mixture" on Wednesday, June 23d. The witness said he did not see Thorn on Friday, June 25th. He had a letter, in which the prisoner asked him to say that he had sent for the bottle of shampoo mixture on the 23d and had been in the place the greater part of that Friday.

Merich identified the letter when it was handed him by the prosecuting lawyer. In answer to Mr. Howe the witness said he had known Thorn for a long time, and he bore an excellent reputation.

The principal witness of the afternoon was John Gotha, the barber, to whom Thorn is alleged to have made a confession soon after the murder.

His story on the whole agreed substantially with the account printed at the time, and corroborated that made by Mrs. Nack.

CROOKED WORK SOMEWHERE.

Two Claims Put in for the Reward in a Murder Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 26.—John J. O'Malley commenced suit today against the State of California and Chief of Police Lees to prevent the payment to Lees of a reward of $1000 offered by the state for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Francis H. L. Weber and his wife Lizzie M. Weber, who were butchered in their home in Sacramento, December 29, 1894. O'Malley, who holds the assigned claim of Vladislav Zatkowski, alleges the reward for the arrest and conviction of Ivan Kovalev, who was hanged for the crime, belongs to Zatkowski, who arrested Kovalev and gave the most damaging testimony against him.

SIMPLY A FIEND

Lynching Too Good for This Man.

Set Fire to His Wife's Clothes and Plucked Her Burning Flesh.

PAKISTAN, November 26.—The wife of Antonio Milagro died today a most horrible death. Thanksgiving Day Antonio became drunk and went to the cellar to get more liquor. He fell and his wife came to his assistance with a lamp, but he threw himself at her head and missed the mark. His hand came into contact with a can of oil of tar, which he threw in his wife's face.

In an instant the mixture caught fire from the lamp and she was enveloped in flames. Help arrived in time to prevent her from burning up where she stood. The woman was laid on her bed, and when the officers arrived they found Antonio standing over her plucking the cooked flesh from her breast and arms in Spanish glee and cursing like a demon.

When he was arrested he raved, and had to be subjected to rough treatment before he could be taken to the police station.

Fusion in Ohio.

CINCINNATI, November 26.—At the recent election the fusion ticket which carried this county contained nine Democrats and five Republicans members of the legislature. There has been some doubt as to how the Republican fusionists would vote on joint ballot for United States senator. At a meeting of these fusionists here they decided to vote for the Republican caucus nominee, which will make the legislature stand 80 Republicans to 45 Democrats on joint ballot for United States senator.

ROSECRANS REVIVES.

He Urges Mr. McKinley to Begin Work at San Pedro.

LOS ANGELES, November 26.—General W. S. Rosecrans this morning sent to President McKinley the following telegram:

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 26, 1897.

To the President, White House, Washington, D. C.—Just recovering from critical illness, I cannot say much but must urge you to compel the secretary of war to execute the law by beginning work on San Pedro harbor improvement. His failure to do so is a disgraceful delay and is fast impounding the honor of your administration. As one who helped to preserve the institutions and laws of our great country, your old commander begs you to uphold the law and put a stop to this scandalous juggling with an act of congress.

(Signed) W. S. ROSECRANS.

MANY NARROW ESCAPES.

Incidents of the Nitro-Glycerine Explosion at Chesterfield, Ind.

CHESTERFIELD, Ind., November 26.—An explosion of nitro-glycerine occurred one mile west of this city at 9:10 o'clock last night. Sixty quarts of nitro-glycerine were hauled there for the purpose of shooting a gas well today.

The explosive was placed in a large zinc tub, located at the end of a steam exhaust pipe for the purpose of throwing out the mixture. It is the theory that the tub became overheated, causing an explosion, with disastrous results. A hole ten feet long and several feet deep was torn in the earth. The engine was blown to pieces.

Drillers Hance and McGuire had narrow escapes. They were standing within thirty feet of the scene of the accident and were hurled twenty feet by the force of the explosion, but with the exception of a few bruises they escaped unharmed.

Persons a mile away were lifted from their feet by the concussion and the jar was perceptibly felt for ten miles. Fire followed the explosion, but the flames were quickly extinguished.

California Fruit Sales.

NEW YORK, November 26.—Porter Brothers Company sold today: Grapes—Tokyo $1.80 to $1.90 for single crates, averaged $1.20 to $1.30; Verdures $1.10 to $1.35; Cornishons $1.15 to $1.35; Black Favers $1 to $1.25.

NOT ONE VICTORY

American Historians Completely Mistaken.

Extraordinary Address to the Ex-Confederates of Missouri by General Marmaduke.

ST. LOUIS, November 26.—General Vincent Marmaduke, of Sweet Springs, Mo., who was recently appointed by the ex-confederates of Missouri as chairman of a committee to write an authentic history of the part Missouri and Missourians took in the civil war, today issued a remarkable address.

It was addressed to the ex-confederates of Missouri and said in part:

"The honor and glory of this great struggle was with the South and southern soldiers right in justice to themselves and their dead comrades to preserve the memory of it. While the North and northern soldiers are investigating against all manifestations of sectional feeling, they are erecting monuments to their unsuccessful leaders and telling the story very much to their credit and to our detriment.

"The North had more than four soldiers to one in the South. Its armies were reinforced and assisted by 600 ships of war, manned by 35,000 sailors. It had unlimited credit, which meant an unlimited supply of money. It had factories to manufacture everything needed to arm and equip, to supply and maintain its great armies and fleets. It had railroads running in every direction for the transportation of its troops. It had intercourse with the whole world. The South had none of these advantages or had them only to a limited extent. But notwithstanding all its advantages, it took the North four years to crush, and then it did so by a grinding process and without having gained a single decisive victory."

IMPORT TEAS.

WASHINGTON, November 26.—The secretary of the treasury has issued instructions to collectors of customs to the effect that the affidavits required under section four of the new tariff act in regard to the importation of tea shall be taken only from imports of consignments, and not from agents or brokers; and further, that in case of doubt as to the genuineness of the sample or truth of the affidavit, the examiner should obtain proper samples of the imported tea to be compared with the official standards.

THE TRADE OF A WEEK

Abstract of the Official Record.

Shipments Have Been Usually Heavy.

Imports Are Running Behind Last Year's Nearly $2,000,000,000 a Month.

New York, November 26.—R. G. Dunn & Company's weekly review of trade will say in its issue tomorrow:

The heavy exports of wheat, with the renewed advanced in price, is the most interesting and important feature of the week's events. Since August, when the extent of the foreign deficiency became realized, exports have been larger than in corresponding weeks of any previous year. The cotton exports have also become very heavy, and the output of corn has been little below last year's unprecedented record, while in exports of manufacturing products, especially machinery, all records for the season have been surpassed.

While the aggregate for November last year was over $109,000,000, shipments from New York for three weeks have been but slightly smaller, with a fair prospect that the known increase in cotton and other products from other ports may make up the deficiency.

Meanwhile imports are running behind last year's at New York nearly $2,000,000,000, though so that another excess of exports over imports amounting to $60,000,000 for the month is probable. But this would make an excess of about $25,000,000 in four months.

After the slight decline last Saturday, wheat rose to $1.30 for November with No. 2 red and other grades a few cents higher. Yet western receipts are of enormous magnitude, in four weeks 27,072,204 bushels, against 9,124,638 in the same four weeks last year, while Atlantic exports, flour included, were for the week 3,625,438 bushels and for four weeks 15,429,533 against 7,787,063 last year. The shipments from other ports have also been heavy and nothing appears to change former estimates of European needs.

The iron industry shows no decrease in product or consumption of pig, but with much reduced orders for products, excess of production is expected and Bessemer falls from $10.15 and grey forge to $9.00 at Pittsburgh, though Chicago and eastern markets show no change. Bids are also weaker at Pittsburgh at $15.

Expectations of lower prices tends to produce the time when new business is small and the mills are working mostly on small orders, with buyers impatient for delivery. Other large orders are held back in plates by inability of the works to deliver in the time desired. In bare, agricultural and railway manufacturing causes a heavy demand at Chicago; iron is preferred to steel and tin sheets are also in better demand, but bars are a shade lower at Pittsburgh and both wire and cut nails. Some large orders for rails by eastern railways are reported.

Some reduction in prices of wool appears, probably averaging half a cent, with sales of Australian amounting to 2,700,000 pounds, but the tons is still strong.

Fallers for the week have been 238 in the United States against 300 last year, and 25 in Canada against 33 last year.

MICHAEL'S ARK.

It Is Vacant Now and Michael Is No More.

Stockton, November 26.—This afternoon the body of a man was found in the mud and water of McLeod's lake, near Nelson's boat house. The corpse was seen by Nelson, who reported the fact to the coroner. The body proved to be that of Michael Shidan, who occupied an ark in the lake. He had been drinking heavily for several days and was last seen yesterday when he was intoxicated. It is supposed that last night he fell off his ark. A watch and 35 cents were found on the body, which indicated that there was no foul play. The deceased was about 40 years old. The inquest will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the lounge at the Stockton Undertaking Company.

Another Bogus Dunham.

SAN JOSE, November 26.—Chief of Police Kidwaid received the following telegram from Pine Bluff, Arkansas, this morning:

"Is James C. Dunham still wanted? If so state the reward and telephone description. Wire answer immediately."

"JAMES HOURS."

The chief knows nothing more than what the telegram tells. The writer was wired that Dunham was much wanted. As the message was sent to this place "collect" the Pine Bluff office was instructed to get the money from the sender. The facts have been turned over to the sheriff's office. Sheriff Lyndon has not yet received the photographs and letter of description of the Van Enron suspect. This may come on my mail. He receives a telegram from the arresting officer there this morning, saying that the man is reticent, but says he has been a grocer and a nurseryman. Very little credence is given to the story.

Mining Missing.

DENVER, November 26.—Colonel Geo. A. Butte, a prominent mining man of Telluride, Colo., has been missing since August 24th. His friends fear he has met with foul play, as he had a large sum of money when he left Telluride. He had announced an intention to go to Excelsior Springs, Mo., or to Arizona for six weeks' recreation.

Killed by Giant Powder.

BALTIMORE, Md., November 26.—A fatal accident occurred last evening at the Elkton Bonanza mine, James Cagel ignited some giant powder and the magazine exploded with terrible force. Cagel was killed instantly, his body being mangled in a frightful manner. Thomas Hopkins was painfully though not fatally wounded.

CURRENCY REFORM.

Business Men Will Side With President McKinley.

WASHINGTON, November 26.—The annual report of the secretary of the treasury, according to the present plan, will be sent to congress either on the first or second day of the coming session. As to the secretary's plan for the reform of the currency, enough has been learned to give confidence that the President is in full accord with his views and recommendations, although in his official utterances, as expressed in his forthcoming message to congress, he may not give a complete and specific endorsement to all the propositions contained by the secretary's report.

It is also understood that the forthcoming report of the monetary commission will cover recommendations not essentially different from those embodied in Secretary Gage's report to congress. Those most familiar with both of these important papers give assurance that the difference between them will be easily reconciled and the support of the propositions so harmonious that the monetary commission will be able to bring the powerful influence of the great body of business men which the committee represents.

SAN DIEGO WINS.

The Training Ship Marion To Be Located in Southern Waters.

SAN DIEGO, November 26.—U. S. Grant, who is now in San Francisco, wired the Tribune this morning from that city, saying that Governor Budd had consented to the transfer of the Marion to San Diego and had written the details of the cost of maintenance in a letter.

This is a victory for the San Diego services and for the Tribune, which has made the fight against a strong opposition in San Francisco to the delivery of the Marion at this post, after the secretary of the navy had granted her to the San Diego division.

Germany's Demands on China.

LONDON, November 26.—Special dispatches received here today from Shanghai say that Baron Von Heyking, the German minister to China, has presented to the Chinese government the demands of Germany for reparation for the recent murder of the German missionaries and the destruction of the mission property.

These demands include the execution of the murderers of Nie and Henley, the punishment of the implicated officials, the reconstruction of the Mission building, the payment of an indemnity of 600,000 taels to the relatives of the victims and also the payment of a heavy indemnity to cover the expenses of the German naval expedition and the maintenance of the German forces at Kiaochow. The Chinese government replied that Kiaochow bay must be evacuated before the demands can be discussed. Baron Von Heyking refuses to consent to this. The foreign diplomats, the special dispatches further announce, say that the German conditions are impossible of acceptance and they assert they were only presented to enable Germany to remain in Kiaochow bay and to extend northward her occupation of Chinese territory.

Tennessee White Caps.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., November 26.—The jury at Sevierville, in the case against Peas Wynn and Catlett Tipton, charged with the murder of William Whaley and wife, in that county last Whaley, brought in a verdict this morning convicting Wynn and acquitting Tipton. The crime was a dastardly one and was the outgrowth of the White Cap organization existing in that country. In order to secure punishment of White Caps, the state legislature, at its last session, made a new judicial circuit, annexing Sevierville to Knox, so that Judge T. A. B. Nelson would try the case. There are also cases against Robert Catlett and Robert Wade, charged with having instigated the crime and paid Wynn and Tipton for its commission.

Pistols and Razors in Delaware.

WILMINGTON, November 26.—A special to Every Evening from Lewis, Del., says that at a colored festival held in that town Cephus Miller, a negro, became engaged in a quarrel with John E. Lockwood, a colored resident of Lewis. Miller drew a revolver and fired several shots at Lockwood, killing him instantly. Another man was shot through the head. Lockwood's friends immediately attacked Miller with clubs and razors, beating and slashing him till he was unconscious. He was rescued by the town constable and locked up. The injured negroes made several attempts during the night to reach the murderer, but were prevented by the constable and his deputies. Miller is still unconscious and may die.

Admitted He Swore Falsely.

SACRAMENTO, November 26.—George Shaw, a witness in the case of Harry Lynch, now being tried here for robbery, created a sensation in court today by declaring that the testimony given him at his preliminary examination in the police court was all false.

He attempted to excuse himself by saying that he was intoxicated at the time he gave such testimony. The prosecution will put on witnesses to show that the statement made by Shaw at the preliminary examination had been previously made to a police officer also, and that he was not intoxicated at the time. An information for perjury will be filed against him.

Collision in the English Channel.

LONDON, November 26.—The British steamer Baron Ardroose from Bombay, October 14th, for Antwerp and Havre, collided with the Austrian steamer Tokio last night off Dungeness. The Tokio sank shortly afterwards. Four of her crew were drowned and fourteen were rescued by a pilot cutter. The Baron Ardroose had her bow stove in.

Mining Strike Ended.

COAL CITY, Pa., November 26.—The strike in the Wilmington coal fields is broken. The miners of the Star Coal Company, Big Four Coal Company and Wilmington Coal Mining and Manufacturing Company, resumed work today at the 75¢ cent scale. Over 3000 miners are employed in these mines.

One Blow Killed Him.

GASSOPOLIS, Miss., November 26.—At an entertainment in Calumet township last night Jacob Chavous, colored, was struck with a club on the back of the neck by Ish Monroe, colored. Chavous' neck was broken and he died instantly. Monroe is an ex-convict.

The National Exchequer.

WASHINGTON, November 26.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $216,140,459; gold reserve, $156,654,510.

DOLLAR WHEAT

It is Again Realized on Change.

Higher Cables the Cause of the Brief Advancing Tendency.

Latest Figures.

Now York, November 26.—After several weeks of unsatisfactory markets, "dollar wheat" in the speculative acceptance of the term, was realized on change today. The December option early attained that and soon passed it, reaching $1.15 in the afternoon which was also the final price.

A bad "squeeze" of the shorts was certainly responsible for local strength, although higher cables had much to do with the early advancing tendency of the local markets. Exporters bought only moderately of wheat but took about 200,000 bushels of corn today. December wheat ranged from 95¢ to 101¢ and May from 94¢ to 101¢, closing at 96¢.

CHICAGO, November 26.—Wheat started firm at 91 1/2¢ to 92¢ for May and 96 1/2¢ and 97 1/2¢ for December, compared with 91 1/2¢ and 91 1/2¢ and 91 1/2¢ respectively at the close.

The additional strength came from an advance at Liverpool of 3¢ to begin with, added to the effect of a cold wave predicted from the signal service bureau. There was plenty of bearish news in circulation and for nearly an hour after the opening there was moderate selling with the tendency of prices slightly downward for May, December, however, holding firmly.

The Cincinnati Price Current estimates that after December 1st there would be 100,000 bushels available exportable surplus in this country. The Kansas City reporter reported the increase in that state was 16 per cent. The Buenos Ayres correspondent of the London Times estimated that Argentina would have 37,500,000 bushels of wheat to dispose of for export.

Receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth since Wednesday morning were 1542 carloads against 24,144 for the closing two days of the previous week and 644 a year ago. Chicago got 191 cars and shipped 215,000 bushels.

About two minutes after the opening December began to advance slowly at first, but very soon with the gathering impetus of an advancing storm, it rose from 96 1/2¢ to 97 1/2¢ without closing May to go above the price opened at, but then the December made a spasmodic jump that took it to 98 1/2¢ and a series of leaps landed it at 99 1/2¢.

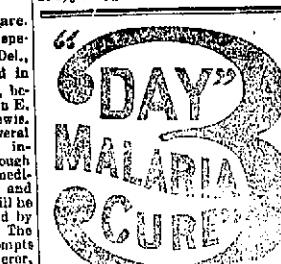

May responded in a suitable manner by advancing to 98 1/2¢. It was all a matter of short covering. St. Louis shorts were sold to inactive bidders at the commencement of the buying and a host of traders joined in the trade. There was hardly a bushel of wheat for sale until the market had reached $1, when the anxious ones were furnished with so much that a sudden drop to 97 1/2¢ resulted.

But the shorts were too badly demoralized to wait any longer to get under cover and the price soon shot up again. The Atlantic port clearing of wheat and flour were equal to about 515,000 bushels including 72,000 bushels from Galveston.

May after reacting a little became stronger than before and reached 98 1/2¢ before the close. It wound up at 98 1/2¢ December got up to 94 1/2¢ and closed at that.

Corn was not very active and responded very lazily to the encouragement it got from wheat. The tendency was downward until wheat became very bullish and had evidently the latter to thank for the 10¢ advance it made in the end.

December oats were barely steady, but a distinctly firm feeling was noticeable in May. The long crop was willing to exchange the former for the latter at 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 difference.

Fast Career of Nora Robbe.

Charged With Embezzling a Horse.

She Borrowed the Animal to Elope With Her Husband's Brother.

Romantic Nora Robbe has come to grief. She is beginning to experience those vicissitudes that soon come to most young people who set out to lead a gay life and disregard parental precepts and warnings.

Nora's brief career has been full of adventure, and though only 18 years of age she is now a prisoner in the county jail. She cries bitterly and says she never meant to do anything wrong. But her tears avail her nothing.

Constable Irvine of Sanger arrested the young woman at Angels Camp, Tuolumne county, on a warrant he had from Justice Redfield's court, charging her with embezzlement. The complainant is a rancher named Cameron, who resides on the Kings river bottom near Centerville, and he accuses her of having borrowed a horse from him and failed to return it.

Mrs. Robbe first came into notoriety a few months ago when she eloped with her husband's brother, Jeff Robbe. The brothers had been rivals for the fickle heart of the maid, who was then only 17 years of age. Harry won her, and then Jeff apparently retired, resigned to his ill success. Harry and the girl were married, much against the wishes of her mother. Their marital bliss was not of any duration, however, for in about a month the wife became ill, and Harry, who had a situation at the Portoles Agricultural Works and could not leave his work, finally asked his brother to nurse the woman, for which honor they had been rivals.

The patient convalesced rapidly under the devoted care of Jeff Robbe, who planned to make her his and he succeeded. One fine summer afternoon Mrs. Robbe recovered from her sickness while her husband was welding the heavy blade hammer at the blacksmith shop, and she slept with him brother. They drove to Coloma, where they took the train for Mendota. At this place the runaways were apprehended, the woman's mother having sworn out a warrant for Jeff's arrest. He was kept in jail a short time and then released, the girl having returned to her husband. Afterwards the husband and wife separated. Her love for her brother was still strong, and she and Jeff again went away, this time to Tuolumne county.

But Jeff and his sweetheart could not agree. In a short time they separated, and the pretty young woman was thrown upon her own resources, with the result usual in such cases.

It was the first time that the couple eloped that Mr. Cameron was imposed upon. Jeff had a buggy, but he did not have a horse, so Mrs. Robbe sent to Mr. Cameron for a fleetfooted animal, and not knowing the purpose for which it was wanted, he gladly accommodated her. But he has never since seen this horse.

Mrs. Robbe says the horse is in a pasture in Tuolumne county and carefully promises to return it. She is quite a handsome young woman, and takes her imprisonment very much to heart.

MINING ACTIVITY.

A Rich Strike on Crooks Mountain is Reported.

A Lawsuit in Which the Latter Took No Chances.

Fresno, November 20.—In the superior court today an order was issued requiring George T. Hughes to appear next Wednesday forenoon and produce some papers belonging to his father, William Hughes, which the son seized recently.

The son brought proceedings some time ago to be appointed guardian of the old man, whom he declared to be incompetent. Mr. Hughes Sr. last Saturday went to Modesto, in purchase of the services of his counsel, to secure a package of deeds, certificate of deposit, and other valuable papers, which were in a bank there. He got the papers and placed them in his buggy, which he left standing for a few minutes.

When he returned the package was gone. The old man made inquiries and was informed by a stable keeper that the package had been taken out of the buggy by his son George.

The latter refused to surrender the papers saying that his attorneys had instructed him not to give them up.

FAVOR A BRIDGE.

High School Senators Debate the Railroad Crossing Matter.

The High School senators at their weekly meeting last night answered the roll call with quotations from Gray. The debate of the evening was upon the question:

"Resolved, That a bridge across the Southern Pacific railroad on Mariposa street would be an improvement upon existing conditions."

Senators Burns and Smiley led the debate, in which all the numbers took part. The resolution was carried by vote of 10 to 6. After transacting minor business the senate adjourned.

Christian Endeavor Social.

At the First Presbyterian church last evening the Christian Endeavor Society gave a social. The affair was for the purpose of affording the young folks an opportunity to become better acquainted, and there was no charge for admission. The evening was passed in playing games and conversation, there being no literary or musical program. A large number of young folks were present and the evening passed very pleasantly. Delicacies coffee and sandwiches prepared by the young ladies were served during the evening.

The Shahamarian Estate.

John M. Seropian, administrator of the estate of Stephen Shahamarian, says that the residue of the estate amounting to $374 is given to the only lawful heir, Esther Shahamarian. The total proceeds received from the sale of the estate amounted to $992, and the expenditures were $610. Shahamarian and his son and daughter were murdered in June of 1896 and the mystery surrounding their death has not yet been cleared up.

AN INTERESTING QUESTION.

Can a Poundkeeper Give Clear Title to a Stolen Horse?

The suit of D.S. Likens against George Dawson, which was to have been tried on November 24th in Justice Mericle's court at Selma, was compromised out of court. James Burns was attorney for the defendant and Frank Kauke of Fresno for the plaintiff.

The question in controversy was the ownership of a horse that was stolen from Dawson & Evans last March. A few days after it was stolen the poundkeeper of Fresno found it running loose Woodward added and took it to the pound. He advertised the animal and sold it to Mr. Likens, giving him a bill of sale.

About the first of November some of Mr. Likens' family drove the horse to town. The liveryman recognized it and took possession of it, giving the parties another horse to drive home. Mr. Likens then began suit to get the title he had gotten from the poundkeeper of Fresno. The point of law, whether a poundkeeper can sell a stolen horse and give clear title to it, seems never to have been settled by the courts.

Superior Court Notes.

The following business was transacted in the superior court yesterday:

BERNIE JUDGE WESB, DEPARTMENT 2. Fresno Street Railroad Company vs. Southern Pacific Company; transferred to department 1.

Turnbull-West.

John Turnbull and Miss Lillian West, both of West Park, were united in marriage on Tuesday evening of this week. The ceremony was performed at the residence of J. W. Shanklin in this city. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Shanklin, Rev. J. M. French officiated. A wedding supper was served and the happy couple received many good wishes from the guests present.

Shipping Lumber From Pollaskey.

Pollaskey is becoming quite a lumber shipping point. The increase in price of building material has given a great impetus to the business. Four or five teams are engaged in hauling lumber from the sawmill situated near Coarse Gold in Madera county to Pollaskey, from where it is shipped on the railroad.

THORN'S DILEMMA.

If He Takes the Stand Mrs. Nack Will Tell All She Knows.

New York, November 26.—Lawyers Howe and Moore, who have diligently defended Martin Thorne, met today with a serious and unlooked-for obstacle when, after a brief adjournment, District Attorney Youngs informed the court that the people rested their case.

It was generally expected that Mrs. Nack would be put on the stand to reiterate her confession and the lawyers who had been assigned to look after Thorne's interests thought that she would repeat her statement of two weeks ago.

Late in the afternoon District Attorney Youngs said that he was not prepared to say whether Mrs. Nack, who had made such a famous scene in the first trial by her confession, would be produced or not. The case, as far as the district attorney's opinion went, was fully proved without the woman's testimony. Later on, however, one of Mr. Youngs' advisers said that in the case that the defense put Thorne on the stand, the prosecution would certainly produce Mrs. Nack in rebuttal.

FATHER AND SON.

A Rich Strike on Crooks Mountain is Reported.

Coffee Should Be Cheap.

New York, November 26.—As a result of the war now being waged between the Arbuckle Coffee Company and the Woolson Spice Company the sales of coffee during the week now ended have been far in excess of any similar period during the last year. Coffee brokers declared today that their sales have been doubled. The Woolson Spice Company, which is controlled by the Haymeyer, Leising & No. 7 at 9 cents per pound. Not to be outdone the Arbuckles made a reduction in their prices. Coffee is now cheaper than it has been since before the war, say the old dealers, and if the fight lasts there is no telling what price it will go. Another reason for the low price is to be found in the enormous quantity of green coffee now here.

Stage Held Up in Nevada.

Carson, Nov., November 26.—As a result of the first stage robbery in this section for fifteen years, the stage running between Bishop and Independence was relieved of the Wells-Fargo express box, containing about $1000. The money represented tax collecting, being conveyed to the county seat. The hold-up occurred in an exposed part of the road only two miles from the railroad station.

Baltimore and All-Americans.

SANTA ROSA, November 26.—Two thousand spectators in sun-warmed seats witnessed a snappy game this afternoon between the Baltimore and All-Americans. The Baltimoreans went first to bat, cleaning up four runs in the first inning. The double play of Jennings was the best of the day. Score: Baltimore, 8; All-American, 7.

DRAWING BIG HOUSES.

Gra Company Makes Another Hit in "Martha."

"Martha" was rather an ambitious undertaking for the Grae Opera Company, but it surprised a great many to see it put on and sung so well. It was really a very creditable performance and thoroughly enjoyable.

Martin Pache at Lions was in splendid voice, and his interpretation of the part was more artistic than anything he has done during the week since it gives him greater scope.

"Martha," too, was beautifully sung by that clever singer Eloise Mortimer. Her rendition of the "Last Rose of Summer" brought back memories of Emma Abbott, and she sang it with much feeling. She was vigorously applauded by the big audience.

Fenny Myers as Nancy had a part that was just to her liking, and she acquitted herself in her usual excellent manner. Sylvian Langlois, who had but little opportunity to distinguish himself during the week, appeared to good advantage as Plunkett. Neither Stanley Falch nor Gilbert Clayton had very important parts to fill, but the little they did was well done.

The opera moved smoothly from begining to end, and it was amusing as some of the lighter operas produced during the company's engagement, it was certainly enjoyable from a musical standpoint.

At the matinee today the most popular opera, "Fatolita," will be given with a strong cast. This is one of the most charming operas ever presented. It is full of comedy and catchy music.

Tonight that very funny opera, "Giraffe Girilla," with a host of novelties, will be presented.

SPORTING NOTES.

The Athletic Club Preparing for a Great Boxing Event.

Two weeks from tonight the Athletic Club will hold a boxing tournament and preparations for the affair are progressing satisfactorily. The tournament will take place in Armory hall, as a large crowd is expected to witness the event.

Many admirers of scientific boxing will be in attendance from neighboring towns.

The tournament match between Jon Ray of the Olympic Club and Jack Siedman of the San Francisco Athletic Club has been arranged and articles of agreement signed by both parties.

The San Francisco Report of a few days ago, in speaking of Ray says:

"Last Thursday the Olympic Club amateur middle weight champion, Joe Ray, boxed a four-round gauntlet with Orlowski. A large crowd of elated club members were present and all pronounced it the best exhibition that they are still at the height of favor by women of fashion."

Jersey City Woman's Club.

The Jersey City Woman's club is a bright, energetic organization which has done much good work in the short time it has been in existence. A retrospective of the club work is given in our Club Outlook, a little paper published by the organization. The retrospective is written by Miss Ada Davenport Fullor, editor of the paper. She says:

"We have grown from 176 members to 240 in three years; maintained for over two years an exchange for women's work for the whole three years; an active and successful girls' club; each winter we have had classes in parliamentary law and papers on current events, and in three years we established a most successful kindergarten, as well as a literary class of great interest to most of these women."

The club has a town improvement department, which hopes to do a great deal of good work in the future. A woman health inspector, women city physician and washer in the school board are a few of the improvements in public offices this department hopes to bring about.

Long scarflets now.

The very latest wrinkle in veils is the empire scarf. It comes two yards and a half long and is meant to be fastened about the hem of the hat, crossed at the back and brought round and knotted on the left shoulder. These scarflets are usually of dotted net in black, white or white with black dots and are edged top and bottom with very narrow black ribbon velvet. Across the ends of the scarf is a plaiting or frilling of fine lace a finger wide, with three rows of the narrow velvet run on above it as a border.

Others of these scarflets are chiffon veiling or brocaded net in cream color, cardinal or russet brown. When of a becoming shade, these soft, fluttering veilings form a pretty frame for delicate face and enhance the bloom of even a glowing beauty.

OAKLAND'S new liquor license will prohibit "rushing the growler." Hereafter that fine-honored institution will not be rushed. It will get there in a more deliberate and less ostentatious way.

The authorities at Vienna are having a cage built around the tribune of the President of the lower house of the Reichsrath for protection against the members of that stormy body. It would seem that a steel cage for the members would answer the purpose better.

The San Jose judge who, from a safe point of vantage on the bench, called a grand juryman a scoundrel and a cur, could accidentally not be punished for contempt of his own court, but it would seem possible that a gentle rebuke might be administered outside the court room.

It is said that both South Carolina and New York claim to be the birthplace of Robert Van Wyck, mayor-elect of Greater New York. It is not surprising that many localities claimed the honor of having been the birthplace of Homer, but that there should be a dispute at Van Wyck's birthplace—that is strange indeed. Now if it had been Orooker.

The Woodland folks are getting a good deal of editorial pabulum from Ed Leake through the Democrat—a good deal more in fact than a man who is holding down a $400 state job should have time to furnish. Perhaps Ed thinks that he is Commissioner of Public Works merely for the salary that is in it, and then again maybe he really hasn't anything to do.

It was required to prove by sworn testimony in a San Francisco court the other day that Durrant was not hanged according to the order of the court. If it was a necessary legal procedure to prove that Durrant was not hanged, the court would appear to have been lacking in precaution. The acceptance of ordinary testimony in a case of that kind is an evidence of laxity. Durrant should have been required to appear in person and make oath that the sentence of the court had not been executed.

POOL ROOM LICENSE.

Deputy Tax-collector T. R. Brown yesterday filed with the clerk of the Board of Supervisors a statement that the county pool room license of Sachs & Company has not been paid, although the firm has been operating in this city for nearly a month. The collector states that he has notified the pool room people to pay, but has been put off on the ground that they were taking action to appeal to the Supervisors for a reduction of license, and that they would pay as soon as that question was determined. It is understood that the application for a reduction is to come before the board as soon as it convenes again. The present county license for pool rooms is $15 per day, and consequently the delinquency at that rate now amounts to $35.

The REPUBLICAN has no means of knowing what the sentiment of the board in regard to license for pool rooms is at the present time, but it hopes not only to see the present license maintained but the district attorney also instructed to take promptation to enforce the payment of the delinquent license. It may be that the present high license is prohibitory, but that question need not worry the board in the least. Fresno has got along very well indeed in the past without pool rooms, and there is no reason to believe that they have become a necessity. Indeed, there are many people who believe that the town would be infinitely better off without these gambling institutions, and the REPUBLICAN agrees with them. In a number of cities in this state they have been prohibited absolutely, and this action has not, as a matter of course, been taken without substantial reasons.

Fresno's experience with pool rooms has been limited to the past few weeks, but enough has been seen of their work in that time to prove their effectiveness in promoting the gambling spirit and catering to it. It is not at all probable that they would prove any less harmful here than they have in Stockton, Oakland and other places where they have been driven out by the enactment of prohibitory ordinances.

The REPUBLICAN will be pleased to see the Board of Supervisors maintain the present high license and take steps to enforce its collection by legal process if necessary. If the business here does not justify the payment of the license so much the better.

In this connection it is due to Deputy Tax Collector Brown to say that the attack upon him by the Expositor is made upon the usual tissue of misstatementand disregard for fairness and fact that characterizes the paper. Tom Brown is an honest and faithful officer, and he fully performed his duty in this instance. He has, in fact, done more than the law requires him to do in going to these parties and notifying them to pay their county licenses. All licenses are payable at the office of the tax collector without solicitation, and the only duty of that officer in the premises is to report any delinquency upon the first Monday in each month to the Board of Supervisors, whose duty it is to take such action as may be deemed advisable. The pool room in question was opened for business during the present month, and not last month as stated by the Expositor, and there was due from it in license taxes $345, not $350 as stated by the Expositor. Had the statement of that paper been true that Sachs & Co. had opened their pool room and failed in paying their county license last month, the duty of the Tax Collector, as provided by law, would have been to notify the supervisors of the fact the first of the present month. But such was not the case, the pool room not having opened its business until the present month. The notification is now on file with the clerk of the board and ready for its consideration at the time the law provides.But what does the Fresno Expositor care for the truth it by ignoring it there is found the possibility of putting a Republican official in a false light? It could easily have ascertained that Deputy Brown had more performed his duty had it desired to get the facts. But facts were what it did not want.The evening paper appears disposed to disparage the ability of the local baseball and football teams. No one expected the Republicans to defeat the All-American team, which is composed of the very pick of the baseball stars of the United States. The surprise is that the visitors did not much better; for it was remarked by many spectators that the local nine was not playing its best throughout the game. As for the Victorians, they went to Stockton to play football, not to engage in a "fistic carnival." The Expositor says that the Stocktonans "just wiped the earth with the football team." Well, literally speaking, they "just" did that very thing, from all accounts; but they didn't do it in the sense the evening paper meant, as the score of 12 to 0 proves. However, it is natural that the Stockton editors of the Expositor should favor the athletic organization of the Slough City.

A young pot hunter of the West Side was arrested a few days ago for violating the game law in killing game and trapping it out of the country, and was fined $10 for his offense. It is said that this hunter makes about $20 a day at his illicit business and has no intention of abandoning it. Of course a man who makes $10 a week can well afford to pay a light fine now and then, but the people cannot afford to stand by and see their laws disregarded or made light of. We command Mr. Lovelace—that is the young hunter's name—to the attention of Game Warden Ferguson. A vigorous prosecution in some other court might have such a result as would induce Niurud Lovelace to conclude that it pays to respect the law.

CAPTAIN YORT was over from Centerville yesterday with some magnificent specimens of Naval oranges from his young grove in Fresno's citrus belt. The fruit is large, ripe and finely colored. The Captain has paid the expense of bringing his orange grove to bearing by cultivating crops between the rows. This year he has Indian corn growing to a height of sixteen feet between the rows, with no apparent effect on the trees or fruit except that the dense shade has prevented the fruit from coloring as early as it would otherwise have done. There is a pointer in the Captain's experience for those who would like to engage in orange growing on a limited capital.

SECRETARY ALDEN has finally made the discovery that there are sufficient funds available to pay for the advertising of bids for the construction of breakwaters at San Pedro harbor. The secretary apparently had a very hard struggle with himself and other adverse circumstances in reaching this happy conclusion, but all is well that ends well, and that San Pedro will eventually come out of the fight with flying colors is pretty certain. It is now claimed that there are a few screws loose in the appropriation for work on the harbor, but if so congress will be likely to fix the matter in "ship shape" at the forthcoming session.

The REPUBLICAN has no means of knowing what the sentiment of the board in regard to license for pool rooms is at the present time, but it hopes not only to see the present license maintained but the district attorney also instructed to take promptation to enforce the payment of the delinquent license. It may be that the present high license is prohibitory, but that question need not worry the board in the least. Fresno has got along very well indeed in the past without pool rooms, and there is no reason to believe that they have become a necessity. Indeed, there are many people who believe that the town would be infinitely better off without these gambling institutions, and the REPUBLICAN agrees with them. In a number of cities in this state they have been prohibited absolutely, and this action has not, as a matter of course, been taken without substantial reasons.

Fresno's experience with pool rooms has been limited to the past few weeks, but enough has been seen of their work in that time to prove their effectiveness in promoting the gambling spirit and catering to it. It is not at all probable that they would prove any less harmful here than they have in Stockton, Oakland and other places where they have been driven out by the enactment of prohibitory ordinances.

The afternoon paper professes to be greatly disturbed because of the fact that some of the court house deputies are relatives of the officers. But would it be in this emotional frame of mind if the officers and their relatives were Democrats instead of Republicans? Well, hardly. If Democratic officers had relatives as deputies, as they always have had when in power, their organ would be filled to overflowing with the soul-satisfying conviction that in no other way could public interests be better safeguarded.

RANDOM REMARKS.

An exchange speaks of the "lurid testimony" given the other day at the trial in New York of Mrs. Nack and Mr. Thom for the murder of Gifford Knapp. There's no use any more of pointing out that there are substantives before which the adjective "lurid" is as much out of place as a vegetarian in a slaughter house. Let the few who believe in the right use of words prepare to hear in the near future that Mr. Jones wore a "lurid necklace," or to read in a paper that Mr. Johnson is having his house painted a "lurid color."

In a dispatch from St. Louis it is stated that Dr. Nansen, the man who had several times failed to find the North Pole, grabbed a committee of prominent men of that city that had called upon the explorer to do him honor. There is nothing strange about that. Nansen came to America not to gain honor, but to scoop in the dollars of the fools who delight to license foreigners, so they worthy or unworthy.

It is reported that some western millionaires intend to have a statue made of President McKinley. The material will be gold, and the cost of the ballou alone will exceed one million dollars. The sculptor is to be E. D. Higby, who designed and executed the silver statue of Ada Rehan, which has been relegated to the obscurity of some boudoir room, according to latest accounts. The tools, the money and the sculptor, three of the elements necessary to a scheme of this kind have been supplied, and all that is wanted now is the President's consent to pose for the figure, as Mr. McKinley is a sensible man, however, it is extremely unlikely that he will supply this want.

A company has been formed in Portland, Me., for the purpose of wresting from the sea gold that is held in solution. The inventor of the process by which this is to be accomplished, is Rev. P. F. Jennings. He says there is one grain of gold in each ton of sea water, and by handling billions of tons the company expects to amass a fortune exceeding the dividends of the Standard Oil company. This sounds rather big, but it is safe to wager that a company formed for the purpose of extracting gold from the "sea of waves" would make a better financial showing at the end of the season than the gold extracting company.

IS GOOD SPORT.

Major Scott Writes Concerning Football.

Foul Tactics as Practiced by the Stockton Players are Unusual.

EPIRON REPUBLICAN: The crippled condition of some of the Victor football team after their encounter with the Stockton ruffians Thursday caused a prominent business man of Fresno to say yesterday that the game "should be played with meat axes."

Football, it played strictly according to the revised inter-collegiate rules, is not the rough and dangerous sport many people deem it to be. The great trouble is that occasionally a team is found like the Stockton aggregation, which contains a few men who have no respect for themselves or anyone else.

Such men are sure to injure some one, no matter what game they take part in. If all football teams were as paleontological and clean about their play as the Victors were at Stockton, there would be no such severe criticism of our great college game as the above.

Many people are under the impression that any big burly fellow who can cripple and maim his opponent is just the fellow to play football successfully. They should disabuse their minds of that idea. The successful football player is a man of average weight, with good speed and above all a good head. Take 22 such men, let them be in good condition, and accidents of any serious nature will be few and far between.

Because there are a few teams that play dirty football it is unjust to condemn the game and say it is only fit for hatchetmen, when there are so many gentlemanly and honest elevens which play the game because they love the sport. An unscrupulous man can make harm out of any sport, just as Langley, the negro half-back, and a few others of the Stockton team did.

The rules provide that when the ball is put in play the players of the side that has possession of it can obstruct the opponents with the body only, except in regard to the man who runs with the ball, and the player who has the sphere is only allowed to push his adversary away with the palm of his open hand. The penalty for a violation of this rule is the immediate surrender of the ball to the opponents for a down, and the removal of the offender from the field. The referee is the judge of the conduct of the players, and his decision is final regarding foul and unfair tactics.

The position of the umpire is an extremely delicate one, as very often he has to judge of a player's motive, and some players have the skill to foul with all the appearance of accident. It would seem best that he should err on the side of strictness and run the risk, possibly, of disqualifying an innocent player rather than let a guilty one escape.

The referee should enter his position with the full determination that he will allow no foul or unfair tactic, or any transgression of the rules.

Had Mr. Powell, who umpired the first half of the Stockton game, been the right kind of a man, had he enforced the rules and the penalties for the violation of them at the first offense, the contest would have been a credit to the city of Stockton, while as it were it is a disgrace.

The manner in which Langley and the rest of the Stockton brutes kicked, butted and slapped the Fresno boys disgusted the spectators, and the gentlemanly way in which the latter took the brutal treatment enlisted sympathy.

The manner in which the Slough City pugs treated Captain Ferguson looked very much as if they were bent on disabling him as quickly as possible, so as to get him out of the game.

Winter Coats.

In coat shapes for the winter both semicircle and fitted shapes are favored. The collars are still the familiar high standing bands finished with braided or broided edges, the emulated strips of velvet, fur border points and other fancy shapes formed and decorated to conform to the rest of the garment.

At one end of the scale, for instance, one might place "frocking" and at the other end its superlative "rum." Again, the injunction "play ball" is gentle and seemly, in comparison with the brusque command "get a move on."

Along certain lines the slumgust seems to revel in extravagant gaudiness and antics, especially in those expressing some infamy in the upper story.

The man who has "wheels" is also popularly known as "natty," "cracked" or "off his trolley." Again, if he comes from the country, he is "corn raised," has "seed in his hair," or his "face doesn't fit him," "Gull," "nerve," "check," "sand," "brass" and "taco" are also nearly synonymous terms for qualities whose popularity has made them a target for popular satire. Equally prolific is the slumgust in coined terms for money. "Dust," "tin," "sand," "rocks," "clink" and "spudulicks" are only a few of the words that translate "filthy lucre."

Two of the slang phrases now in gallantly frequent use are, "That's right," and "That won't cut much ice." The latter, it must be confessed, has certain cool figurative qualities which give it a saving color of grace. But most of these phrases rely chiefly upon their condensed expressiveness, which is the trademark of their American manufacture. They are but one of the many devices of the masses to compass a cossent and avoid circumspection. Thus "snip" and "cinch" are time economy for a monogramed sheenre and an insured competence.

One of the smart tests of the capital mortality of slang is the extremely painful sensation produced by hearing antiquated slang phrases used—and there are always people who are two or three or ten years behind in their use of such phrases. When other people are saying "Not on your typewriter," the user of miflowed slang feebly ejaculates "I should smile." The piety and pathos of certain phrases make it hard to declare that slang has no legitimate use. But concerning its misuse, there can hardly be two opinions among people whose opinions are worth anything. A careful study of the qualities of men and women who habitually interlard their remarks with slang will furnish anybody with a world of convincing conclusions in favor of pure English.—Critic.

Captain Ferguson has taken part in many very hotly contested battles on the gridiron and never before has he sustained such injuries. That he was "bunged up" as he was, and so early in the struggle, makes it look very much as if the Stockton had determined to place him hors de combat as early in the game as possible.

Last Sunday the Fresno Victors played a hard game with the gentlemanly Old Boys, and although the playing was fierce from start to finish, not a man on either side was injured beyond a swollen lip and a few small shoulder.

When men meet on the gridiron in friendly contest they should let none of the vicious elements in them crop out. Football can and has been played in a clean, gentlemanly manner, and when the Y.M.C.A. team of Stockton comes to Fresno for a return game, as they will in the near future, I predict that the Victor football players and the fair people of our city will give them such fair treatment that they will regret their rowdiness of Thursday.

WILL S. SCOTT.

DENOMME'S BAIL.

Judge Risley Refuses to Accept Bailout and Rochon.

An attempt was made yesterday to furnish a bond of $500 in order that Jeremiah Denomme, who is awaiting his second trial on a charge of murdering Chris McNeek, might enjoy freedom. But the effort was unsuccessful, because Judge Risley refused to accept. Hunt & Rochon, in whose saloon the killing occurred, as sureties on the ground that while they had been present at the trial, it was incurred by themselves.

Baker, Frank Borelli qualified for $500 and Al Baker for $100, and they were acceptable to the court. Bondsmen are required to qualify in double the amount they become sureties for.

It is likely that Denomme's friends will find some one who will go on his bond for the remaining $300.

The organization of a Vocal club for ladies' voices in Fresno means a grand revival in song. Mrs. W. E. Benson in her club organization in Los Angeles and other localities has met with signal success. The Treble Clef Club of some thirty-five members in Hanford, under her tutorage, became a splendid musical organization, and her work there, as elsewhere, resulted in building up a taste for music high above the ordinary.
